

Interactive Virtual Event “Current Economic Standings and Career in Petroleum Industry” by Mr. Sarmad Siddiqi 29th March 2020

Mr Sarmad Siddiqi, a well-known professional of petroleum industry in Pakistan, is the Head of field development at PPL. He holds 20 years of experience in oil and gas sector. Looking at current downfall of oil prices in international market and sharp decline in job opportunities, we decided to have an interactive session with Mr Sarmad Siddiqi in which shared his views regarding current downfall in oil prices and declining opportunities in oil & gas industry. The event was attended by more than 100 people, registrations of which had exceeded 200 people. The session was followed by Q&A session with the attendees, in which Mr. Sarmad Siddiqi answered numerous queries from the students and young professionals of the petroleum industry.

